The Catholic French and Spanish prohibited “Yankee Protestants” until the possibility of war with the British changed their minds. What was the migration pattern? How did settlers travel? What motivated them? </li> <li data-bbox="716 562 1429 772"> • Where They Lived The year of arrival, origin, ethnicity, religion, transportation, and topical features of land all influenced this. Varying climates and soils influenced crop choices. Rivers, timber, and mines abounded. Did they settle on a farm and move to the city or vice-versa? </li> <li data-bbox="716 1066 1429 1333"> • Who Stayed, Who Left, Why? Weather, earthquakes, Indian treaties, available employment, slavery, and Civil War sympathies, and Order No. 11 dispersed many to another area. Some moved to another area in the state; some chose to leave. Mr. Bockstruck will suggest where they may have gone and strategies for finding them. </li> </ul>
