Dear Lloyd:

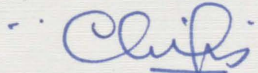

Owen Johnson tells me you have written expressing an interest in our new society. I am please to enclose two application forms for your completing.

As you will note in the brief instructions, if you already belong to a colonial society, you need only copy the information from that application form onto the enclosed. We do need to know which society you are using.

When complete please return both copies to me along with your check payable to the society in an amount for either Annual or Life membership.

If you have any questions about the society or the papers, please let me know and I will be happy to assistin any way I can.

Very cordially,

Grahame Thomas Smallwood, Jr.

Dear Lloyd:

Welcome to the new Society as Life and Charter Member #9.

We had 10 Founder members who organized the Society last April but only 4 of them have submitted their papers! I think they will be surprised when they get high numbers.

Very cordially,
