TOPICS

Effective Use of England's National Archives Website

Learn how to effectively use the research tools, indexes, and catalogs on this large website to find your ancestors and to put them into their correct historical context.

Irish Emigrants to North America: Before, During and After the Famine

Learn about the routes taken and the reasons for the emigration from Ireland to the U.S. and Canada before, during and after the famine. Learn how this mass movement of people can affect your research, plus what tools and records are available to trace your Irish ancestor.

Scottish Emigration to North America: Before, During and After the Rebellions

Learn the reasons for emigration from Scotland to the U.S. and Canada and how it was influenced by events on both sides of the Atlantic. Learn where the emigrants settled, what records they created and what tools are available for tracing your Scottish ancestors.

Overlooked Sources for 17th and 18th Century English Research

Going beyond the basics learn what records, published and originals, are available for 17th and 18th century English research jumping the gap created by England's Civil War and the problems of migration due to the industrial revolution.

ABOUT PAUL MILNER

Paul Milner, a native of northern England, is a professional genealogist and international lecturer. As a genealogist he speaks on a variety of topics relating to research in the British Isles, migration to North America and research methodology. Paul has specialized in British Isles genealogical research for over 30 years. He was raised in England and settled in the United States in 1975. He has been designing workshops and lecturing to a wide variety of audiences for over 35 years.

Paul holds an advanced degree in Theology and is particularly knowledgeable about the church and its role in record keeping. He is the author of Discover English Census Records (UnlockThePast 2015); Buried Treasures: What's in the English Parish Chest (UnlockThePast, 2015); Discover English Parish Records (UnlockThePast, 2014); Genealogy at a Glance: England Research (Genealogical Publishing Co, 2011); plus co-author with Linda Jonas of A Genealogists Guide to Discovering Your English Ancestors: How to Find and Record Your Unique Heritage (Betterway Books, 2000), and A Genealogists Guide to Discovering Your Scottish Ancestors: How to Find and Record Your Unique Heritage (Betterway Books, 2002).

Paul is currently the book review editor for the BIGWILL newsletter and recently retired review editor of the FGS FORUM. He is the past-president of the British Interest Group of Wisconsin and Illinois (BIGWILL), and a past board member of the Association of Professional Genealogists, the Federation of Genealogical Societies and the Genealogical Speakers Guild.

Paul focuses on British Isles resources and methodology on his blog at www.milnergenealogy.com.
