A DGS HYBRID SEMINAR – MARCH 15 & 16, 2025

Join DGS on Saturday, March 15, for a full day of Emerald Isle genealogical education, as Belfast's Ulster Historical Foundation makes a Dallas stop on their 2025 North American tour!

UHF team leaders will teach us about how to enrich our Irish and Scots-Irish family history research; how to use land records, census issues and sources, and researching our ancestors who emigrated from Northern Ireland to North America.

Session 1 • 9:30 - 10:35 am ~ Intro to Irish and Scots-Irish Family History Research

Session 2 • 11:00 am - 12:00 pm ~ Using Land Records, Griffith's Valuation, Tithe & Estate Records

Session 3 • 1:00 - 2:00 pm ~ Census Substitutes & Other Important Sources for the 18th & 19th Centuries

Session 4 • 2:30 - 3:30 pm ~ Emigration from the North of Ireland to North America

Ulster Historical Foundation
Irish and Scots-Irish Research Consultations

UHF staff members Gillian and Fintan will be providing 20-minute private consultations in the McDermott Room at the Dallas Public Library on Sunday, March 16th from 9:00 am - 2:30 pm.

Join us in-person or virtually for this great seminar!

The cost for each session is 39.99 pounds (about $50 at current exchange rates). Register at:

<https://ulsterhistoricalfoundation.com/events-courses/dallas>

You will receive information about your scheduled time slot from the UHF in mid-late January.

Fintan Mullan is Executive Director of the Ulster Historical Foundation and has been responsible for the management of this successful Belfast-based, educational non-profit since 2001. He has extensive experience in Irish family history research and is a regular international speaker on Irish genealogy.

Fintan has managed the production of over 150 Irish history and genealogy titles, including the perennial favorite, Researching Scots-Irish Ancestors. Fintan has ensured the Foundation has been at the forefront of developments in Irish genealogy, including the provision of online resources. He helped to pioneer www.rootsireland.ie, the unique database with over 22 million Irish historical records. He is one of the directors of Irish Family History Foundation and board member of the National Collection of Northern Ireland Publications.

Gillian Hunt is a Research Officer with the Ulster Historical Foundation and is responsible for the management of the Foundation's many genealogical activities. She also carries out research for clients.

Gillian is a hugely experienced user of the General Register Office and the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland, and gives talks on family history research internationally. Gillian has been with the Ulster Historical Foundation since 2001, and she has been co-presenting UHF annual North American lecture tours since 2013.
