1776 and Me:

Finding Your Revolutionary War Connection
with

CRAIG R. SCOTT, MA, CG®, FUGA

A DGS HYBRID SEMINAR – JULY 25, 2026

In recognition of our country's 250th anniversary, we have invited American Revolutionary War expert genealogist Craig R. Scott, CG, FUGA to come to Dallas and walk us down the paths we need to follow to find the details of our patriot ancestors' service. Discover the impact the fight for American independence had on our forebears' lives and bring 1776 to life!

Welcome & Session 1 • 9:30 - 10:35 am
(Central Daylight Time) ~ A Revolutionary War Case Study This case study will follow the course of one revolutionary soldier, that captures the experiences of many of our ancestors who served in the various American Revolution military units. The subsequent lectures in the seminar will each focus in depth on one aspect of the American Fight for Independence.

Session 2 • 11:00 am - 12:00 pm ~ Records Created by the War This presentation will examine types of service, compiled military service records, and where other documents can be found using a step-by-step methodology through a case study.

Join us in-person or virtually for this great seminar!

Session 3 • 1:00 - 2:00 pm ~ Records Created After the War: Pensions Attendees will learn the types of pensions, pension law, pension application files, pension ledgers, pension payment vouchers, and last and final payments.

Session 4 • 2:30 - 3:30 pm ~ Records Created After the War: Bounty Land Discover the history of state and federal bounty land, French and Indian War bounty land during the Revolutionary War, bounty land acts, and the bounty land process. Also revealed will be the information you can find at the Bureau of Land Management website relating to military bounty land.
