

The Dallas Genealogy Society
General Meeting Minutes
April 14, 2018

The general meeting of the Dallas Genealogy Society was opened by Todd DeDecker at 11:01 AM. The minutes of the March 4th meeting are posted on the table and the Website there are no questions or corrections; minutes are approved.

Gloria Goodwin reports that we do have a quorum for this meeting.

The Treasurer's report the cash receipts are $4,504.00, the March disbursements are $2,547 with a net increase of cash $3,087 leaving the cash in the bank as of March 31st of $164,393. There were no questions or comments. The report is forwarded for financial review.

Todd begins talking about the Bring a Friend who would be interested in the programs during a general meeting. The President continues to explain the initiative for regular members to bring a friend. During the May meeting we will have the drawing for the Bring a Friend prize.

Tony Hanson presents the 2018 - 2019 Officer Slate. Tony speaks about the importance of leadership and presents the new slate of officers. The nominees are Todd DeDecker, President, Jim Thornhill; Vice President, Caroline Simpson; Secretary and Travis Tynes: Treasurer. This is the slate for your consideration and an article will be in the newsletter. It is important that we have a quorum for the May meeting to vote on the Slate of Officers. In addition, we will be filling directorship and other appointed officers during our transition period over the summer.

Todd DeDecker discusses the next two seminars: Mark Lowe in August and David Rencher in September. Registration for the August seminar opens soon, check the newsletter.

Announcements for the SIG meetings in April through May 3rd. Special Interest Groups and Seminar are a great way to stretch your knowledge.

Our next meeting will be Saturday, May 5th. Our speaker will be Patti Gillespie. The subject will be Proving your Long-Lost Family the Indirect Way.

The general meeting is adjourned at 11:10 AM.
