Join Us for the November 4th DGS General Meeting

Join us to hear about Skies Over Vietnam - an Oral History Project, with Retired Decorated Captain Catherine "Kay" Bauer, US Navy.

Kay served as part of a Forward Surgical Team assigned to a Vietnamese provincial hospital in Rach Gia, in South Vietnam, and remained in the Navy for 35 years.

Hear her fascinating story and learn about how she has supported veterans ever since!

The next General Meeting will be held in the 1st Floor Auditorium at the Dallas Public Library on Saturday November 4th beginning at 11:00 CDT. It will also be broadcast via Zoom. Please see our website for details at <https://dallasgenealogy.org/general-meeting/>

ICYMI: Image Editing Solutions for Your Genealogy Toolbox

Did you go to the DGS General Meeting at the Dallas Public Library on October 7th? If you didn't, you missed out on a live demonstration of some imaging software that happened right after the session. The good news: the tools are available at the Heritage Lab on the Genealogy floor, and staff are ready to help!
